ACCESS TO RECORDS

63-2-203. Fees.

(1) A governmental entity may charge a reasonable fee to cover the governmental entity's actual cost of duplicating a record. This fee shall be approved by the governmental entity's executive officer.

(2) When a governmental entity compiles a record in a form other than that normally maintained by the governmental entity, the actual costs under this section may include the following:

(a) the cost of staff time for summarizing, compiling, or tailoring the record either into an organization or media to meet the person's request;

(b) the cost of staff time for search, retrieval, and other direct administrative costs for complying with a request. The hourly charge may not exceed the salary of the lowest paid employee who, in the discretion of the custodian of records, has the necessary skill and training to perform the request; provided, however, that no charge may be made for the first quarter hour of staff time; and

(c) in the case of fees for a record that is the result of computer output other than word processing, the actual incremental cost of providing the electronic services and products together with a reasonable portion of the costs associated with formatting or interfacing the information for particular users, and the administrative costs as set forth in Subsections (2)(a) and (b).

(3) Fees shall be established as follows:

(a) Governmental entities with fees established by the Legislature shall establish the fees defined in Subsection (2), or other actual costs associated with this section through the budget process. Governmental entities with fees established by the Legislature may use the procedures of Section 63-38-3.2 to set fees until the Legislature establishes fees through the budget process. A fee set by a governmental entity in accordance with Section 63-38-3.2 expires on May 1, 1995.

(b) Political subdivisions shall establish fees by ordinance or written formal policy adopted by the governing body.

(c) The judiciary shall establish fees by rules of the judicial council.

(4) A governmental entity may fulfill a record request without charge and is encouraged to do so when it determines that:

(a) releasing the record primarily benefits the public rather than a person;

(b) the individual requesting the record is the subject of the record, or an individual specified in Subsection 63-2-202(1) or (2); or

(c) the requester's legal rights are directly implicated by the information in the record, and the requester is impecunious.

(5) A governmental entity may not charge a fee for:

(a) reviewing a record to determine whether it is subject to disclosure, except as permitted by Subsection (2)(b); or

(b) inspecting a record.

(6) (a) A person who believes that there has been an unreasonable denial of a fee waiver under Subsection (4) may appeal the denial in the same manner as a person appeals when inspection of a public record is denied under Section 63-2-205.

(b) The adjudicative body hearing the appeal has the same authority when a fee waiver or reduction is denied as it has when the inspection of a public record is denied.

(7) (a) All fees received under this section by a governmental entity subject to Subsection (3)(a) shall be retained by the governmental entity as a dedicated credit.

(b) Those funds shall be used to recover the actual cost and expenses incurred by the governmental entity in providing the requested record or record series.

(8) A governmental entity may require payment of past fees and future estimated fees before beginning to process a request if fees are expected to exceed $50, or if the requester has not paid fees from previous requests. Any prepaid amount in excess of fees due shall be returned to the requester.

(9) This section does not alter, repeal, or reduce fees established by other statutes or legislative acts.

(10) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(b), fees for voter registration records shall be set as provided in this Subsection (10).

(b) The lieutenant governor shall:

(i) after consultation with county clerks, establish uniform fees for voter registration and voter history records that meet the requirements of this section; and

(ii) obtain legislative approval of those fees by following the procedures and requirements of Section 63-38-3.2.

History: C. 1953, 63-2-203, enacted by L. 1991, ch. 259, § 14; 1992, ch. 280, § 20; 1994, ch. 194, § 2; 1995, ch. 20, § 114; 1999, ch. 48, § 2.

Amendment Notes. — The 1999 amendment, effective May 3, 1999, added Subsection (10).

63-2-206. Sharing records.

(1) A governmental entity may provide a record that is private, controlled, or protected to another governmental entity, a government-managed corporation, a political subdivision, the federal government, or another state if the requesting entity:

(a) serves as a repository or archives for purposes of historical preservation, administrative maintenance, or destruction;

(b) enforces, litigates, or investigates civil, criminal, or administrative law, and the record is necessary to a proceeding or investigation;

(c) is authorized by state statute to conduct an audit and the record is needed for that purpose; or

(d) is one that collects information for presentence, probationary, or parole purposes.

(2) A governmental entity may provide a private or controlled record or record series to another governmental entity, a political subdivision, a government-managed corporation, the federal government, or another state if the requesting entity provides written assurance:

(a) that the record or record series is necessary to the performance of the governmental entity's duties and functions;

(b) that the record or record series will be used for a purpose similar to the purpose for which the information in the record or record series was collected or obtained; and

(c) that the use of the record or record series produces a public benefit that outweighs the individual privacy right that protects the record or record series.

(3) A governmental entity may provide a record or record series that is protected under Subsection 63-2-304(1) or (2) to another governmental entity, a political subdivision, a government-managed corporation, the federal government, or another state if:

(a) the record is necessary to the performance of the requesting entity's duties and functions; or

(b) the record will be used for a purpose similar to the purpose for which the information in the record or record series was collected or obtained.

(4) (a) A governmental entity shall provide a private, controlled, or protected record to another governmental entity, a political subdivision, a government-managed corporation, the federal government, or another state if the requesting entity:

(i) is entitled by law to inspect the record;

(ii) is required to inspect the record as a condition of participating in a state or federal program or for receiving state or federal funds; or

(iii) is an entity described in Subsection 63-2-206(1)(a), (b), (c), or

(b) Subsection (4)(a)(iii) applies only if the record is a record described in Subsection 63-2-304(4).

(5) Before disclosing a record or record series under this section to another governmental entity, another state, the United States, or a foreign government, the originating governmental entity shall:

(a) inform the recipient of the record's classification and the accompanying restrictions on access; and

(b) if the recipient is not a governmental entity to which this chapter applies, obtain the recipient's written agreement which may be by mechanical or electronic transmission that it will abide by those restrictions on access unless a statute, federal regulation, or interstate agreement otherwise governs the sharing of the record or record series.

(6) A governmental entity may disclose a record to another state, the United States, or a foreign government for the reasons listed in Subsections (1), (2), and (3) without complying with the procedures of Subsection (2) or (5) if disclosure is authorized by executive agreement, treaty, federal statute, compact, federal regulation, or state statute.

(7) A governmental entity receiving a record under this section is subject to the same restrictions on disclosure of the material as the originating entity.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if a more specific court rule or order, state statute, federal statute, or federal regulation prohibits or requires sharing information, that rule, order, statute, or federal regulation controls.

(9) The following records may not be shared under this section:

(a) except as provided under Section 59-1-403, records held by the State Tax Commission that pertain to any person and that are gathered under authority of Title 59, Revenue and Taxation;

(b) records held by the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining that pertain to any person and that are gathered under authority of Title 40, Chapter 6, Board and Division of Oil, Gas and Mining; and

(c) records of publicly funded libraries as described in Subsection 63-2-302(1)(c).

(10) Records that may evidence or relate to a violation of law may be disclosed to a government prosecutor, peace officer, or auditor.

History: C. 1953, 63-2-206, enacted by L. 1991, ch. 259, § 17; 1992, ch. 228, § 2; 1992, ch. 250, § 23; 1997, ch. 234, § 3; 1999, ch. 364, § 13.

Amendment Notes. — The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, added “except as provided under Section 59-1-403” in Subsection (9)(a).

63-2-207. Subpoenas — Court ordered disclosure for discovery.

(1) Subpoenas and other methods of discovery under the state or federal statutes or rules of civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative procedure are not written requests under Section 63-2-204.

(2) (a) (i) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2)(c), in judicial or administrative proceedings in which an individual is requesting discovery of records classified private, controlled, or protected under this chapter, or otherwise restricted from access by other statutes, the court, or an administrative law judge shall follow the procedure in Subsection 63-2-202(7) before ordering disclosure.

(ii) Until the court or an administrative law judge orders disclosure, these records are privileged from discovery.

(b) If, the court or administrative order requires disclosure, the terms of the order may limit the requester’s further use and disclosure of the record in accordance with Subsection 63-2-202(7), in order to protect the privacy interests recognized in this chapter.

(c) Unless a court or administrative law judge imposes limitations in a restrictive order, this section does not limit the right to obtain:

(i) records through the procedures set forth in this chapter; or

(ii) medical records discoverable under state or federal court rules as authorized by Subsection 63-2-302(3).

History: C. 1953, 63-2-207, enacted by L. 1992, ch. 280, § 24; 1994, ch. 99, § 1; 1998, ch. 303, § 1.

Amendment Notes. — The 1998 amendment, effective May 4, 1998, divided Subsection (2)(a), redesignating existing Subsection (2)(a) as (2)(a)(i) and adding the (2)(a)(ii) designation;

in Subsection (2)(a)(i) added “except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2)(c)” at the beginning and substituted “chapter” for “act” in the middle; divided Subsection (2)(c), adding the (i) designation; added Subsection (2)(a)(ii); and made stylistic changes throughout the section.

PART 3
CLASSIFICATION

63-2-301. Records that must be disclosed.

(1) The following records are public except to the extent they contain information expressly permitted to be treated confidentially under the provisions of Subsections 63-2-201(3)(b) and (6)(a):

- (a) laws;
- (b) names, gender, gross compensation, job titles, job descriptions, business addresses, business telephone numbers, number of hours worked per pay period, dates of employment, and relevant education, previous employment, and similar job qualifications of the governmental entity's former and present employees and officers excluding:
 - (i) undercover law enforcement personnel; and
 - (ii) investigative personnel if disclosure could reasonably be expected to impair the effectiveness of investigations or endanger any individual's safety;
- (c) final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, and orders that are made by a governmental entity in an administrative, adjudicative, or judicial proceeding except that if the proceedings were properly closed to the public, the opinion and order may be withheld to the extent that they contain information that is private, controlled, or protected;
- (d) final interpretations of statutes or rules by a governmental entity unless classified as protected as provided in Subsections 63-2-304(15), (16), and (17);
- (e) information contained in or compiled from a transcript, minutes, or report of the open portions of a meeting of a governmental entity as provided by Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings, including the records of all votes of each member of the governmental entity;
- (f) judicial records unless a court orders the records to be restricted under the rules of civil or criminal procedure or unless the records are private under this chapter;
- (g) records filed with or maintained by county recorders, clerks, treasurers, surveyors, zoning commissions, the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands, the School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration, the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining, the Division of Water Rights, or other governmental entities that give public notice of:
 - (i) titles or encumbrances to real property;
 - (ii) restrictions on the use of real property;
 - (iii) the capacity of persons to take or convey title to real property;or
 - (iv) tax status for real and personal property;
- (h) records of the Department of Commerce that evidence incorporations, mergers, name changes, and uniform commercial code filings;
- (i) data on individuals that would otherwise be private under this chapter if the individual who is the subject of the record has given the governmental entity written permission to make the records available to the public;
- (j) documentation of the compensation that a governmental entity pays to a contractor or private provider;
- (k) summary data; and

(1) voter registration records, including an individual's voting history, except for those parts of the record that are classified as private in Subsection 63-2-302(1)(h).

(2) The following records are normally public, but to the extent that a record is expressly exempt from disclosure, access may be restricted under Subsection 63-2-201(3)(b), Section 63-2-302, 63-2-303, or 63-2-304:

(a) administrative staff manuals, instructions to staff, and statements of policy;

(b) records documenting a contractor's or private provider's compliance with the terms of a contract with a governmental entity;

(c) records documenting the services provided by a contractor or a private provider to the extent the records would be public if prepared by the governmental entity;

(d) contracts entered into by a governmental entity;

(e) any account, voucher, or contract that deals with the receipt or expenditure of funds by a governmental entity;

(f) records relating to government assistance or incentives publicly disclosed, contracted for, or given by a governmental entity, encouraging a person to expand or relocate a business in Utah, except as provided in Subsection 63-2-304(34);

(g) chronological logs and initial contact reports;

(h) correspondence by and with a governmental entity in which the governmental entity determines or states an opinion upon the rights of the state, a political subdivision, the public, or any person;

(i) empirical data contained in drafts if:

(i) the empirical data is not reasonably available to the requester elsewhere in similar form; and

(ii) the governmental entity is given a reasonable opportunity to correct any errors or make nonsubstantive changes before release;

(j) drafts that are circulated to anyone other than:

(i) a governmental entity;

(ii) a political subdivision;

(iii) a federal agency if the governmental entity and the federal agency are jointly responsible for implementation of a program or project that has been legislatively approved;

(iv) a government-managed corporation; or

(v) a contractor or private provider;

(k) drafts that have never been finalized but were relied upon by the governmental entity in carrying out action or policy;

(l) original data in a computer program if the governmental entity chooses not to disclose the program;

(m) arrest warrants after issuance, except that, for good cause, a court may order restricted access to arrest warrants prior to service;

(n) search warrants after execution and filing of the return, except that a court, for good cause, may order restricted access to search warrants prior to trial;

(o) records that would disclose information relating to formal charges or disciplinary actions against a past or present governmental entity employee if:

(i) the disciplinary action has been completed and all time periods for administrative appeal have expired; and

(ii) the charges on which the disciplinary action was based were sustained;

(p) records maintained by the Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands, the School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration, or the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining that evidence mineral production on government lands;

(q) final audit reports;

(r) occupational and professional licenses;

(s) business licenses; and

(t) a notice of violation, a notice of agency action under Section 63-46b-3, or similar records used to initiate proceedings for discipline or sanctions against persons regulated by a governmental entity, but not including records that initiate employee discipline.

(3) The list of public records in this section is not exhaustive and should not be used to limit access to records.

History: C. 1953, 63-2-301, enacted by L. 1991, ch. 259, § 18; 1992, ch. 280, § 25; 1994, ch. 99, § 2; 1995, ch. 133, § 1; 1996, ch. 159, § 3; 1999, ch. 48, § 3.

Amendment Notes. — The 1999 amendment, effective May 3, 1999, added Subsection (1)(l), making a related change.

63-2-302. Private records.

(1) The following records are private:

(a) records concerning an individual's eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits, social services, welfare benefits, or the determination of benefit levels;

(b) records containing data on individuals describing medical history, diagnosis, condition, treatment, evaluation, or similar medical data;

(c) records of publicly funded libraries that when examined alone or with other records identify a patron;

(d) records received or generated for a Senate or House Ethics Committee concerning any alleged violation of the rules on legislative ethics, prior to the meeting, and after the meeting, if the ethics committee meeting was closed to the public;

(e) records received or generated for a Senate confirmation committee concerning character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of an individual:

(i) if prior to the meeting, the chair of the committee determines release of the records:

(A) reasonably could be expected to interfere with the investigation undertaken by the committee; or

(B) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair proceeding or impartial hearing;

(ii) after the meeting, if the meeting was closed to the public;

(f) records concerning a current or former employee of, or applicant for employment with, a governmental entity that would disclose that individual's home address, home telephone number, social security number, insurance coverage, marital status, or payroll deductions;

(g) that part of a record indicating a person's social security number if provided under Section 31A-23-202, 31A-26-202, 58-1-301, 61-1-4, or 61-2-6; and

(h) that part of a voter registration record identifying a voter's driver license or identification card number, Social Security number, or last four digits of the Social Security number.

(2) The following records are private if properly classified by a governmental entity:

(a) records concerning a current or former employee of, or applicant for employment with a governmental entity, including performance evaluations and personal status information such as race, religion, or disabilities, but not including records that are public under Subsection 63-2-301(1)(b) or 63-2-301(2)(o), or private under Subsection 63-2-302(1)(b);

(b) records describing an individual's finances, except that the following are public:

(i) records described in Subsection 63-2-301(1);

(ii) information provided to the governmental entity for the purpose of complying with a financial assurance requirement; or

(iii) records that must be disclosed in accordance with another statute;

(c) records of independent state agencies if the disclosure of those records would conflict with the fiduciary obligations of the agency;

(d) other records containing data on individuals the disclosure of which constitutes a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; and

(e) records provided by the United States or by a governmental entity outside the state that are given with the requirement that the records be managed as private records, if the providing entity states in writing that the record would not be subject to public disclosure if retained by it.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), "medical records" means medical reports, records, statements, history, diagnosis, condition, treatment, and evaluation.

(b) Medical records in the possession of the University of Utah Hospital, its clinics, doctors, or affiliated entities are not private records or controlled records under Section 63-2-303 when the records are sought:

(i) in connection with any legal or administrative proceeding in which the patient's physical, mental, or emotional condition is an element of any claim or defense; or

(ii) after a patient's death, in any legal or administrative proceeding in which any party relies upon the condition as an element of the claim or defense.

(c) Medical records are subject to production in a legal or administrative proceeding according to state or federal statutes or rules of procedure and evidence as if the medical records were in the possession of a nongovernmental medical care provider.

History: C. 1953, 63-2-302, enacted by L. 1991, ch. 259, § 19; 1992, ch. 280, § 26; 1995, ch. 74, § 1; 1996, ch. 195, § 1; 1997, ch. 232, § 67; 1998, ch. 303, § 2; 1999, ch. 48, § 4.

Amendment Notes. — The 1998 amendment, effective May 4, 1998, added Subsection (3).

The 1999 amendment, effective May 3, 1999, added Subsection (1)(h), making a related change.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Financial records.

In an action by a child support obligor against a collection agency for invasion of privacy, the agency could not use a public records defense, since any record of plaintiff's delinquent payments could not be disclosed under the Government Records Access and Management Act. Jones v. United States Child Support Recovery, 961 F. Supp. 1518 (D. Utah 1997).

PART 4
APPEALS

63-2-403. Appeals to the records committee.

(1) A petitioner, including an aggrieved person who did not participate in the appeal to the governmental entity's chief administrative officer, may appeal to the records committee by filing a notice of appeal with the executive secretary no later than:

(a) 30 days after the chief administrative officer of the governmental entity has granted or denied the records request in whole or in part, including a denial under Subsection 63-2-204(7);

(b) 45 days after the original request for records if:

(i) the circumstances described in Subsection 63-2-401(1)(b) occur; and

(ii) the chief administrative officer failed to make a determination under Section 63-2-401.

(2) The notice of appeal shall contain the following information:

(a) the petitioner's name, mailing address, and daytime telephone number;

(b) a copy of any denial of the records request; and

(c) the relief sought.

(3) The petitioner may file a short statement of facts, reasons, and legal authority in support of the appeal.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), no later than three business days after receiving a notice of appeal, the executive secretary of the records committee shall:

(i) schedule a hearing for the records committee to discuss the appeal at the next regularly scheduled committee meeting falling at least 14 days after the date the notice of appeal is filed but no longer than 45 days after the date the notice of appeal was filed provided, however, the records committee may schedule an expedited hearing upon application of the petitioner and good cause shown;

(ii) send a copy of the notice of hearing to the petitioner; and

(iii) send a copy of the notice of appeal, supporting statement, and a notice of hearing to:

(A) each member of the records committee;

(B) the records officer and the chief administrative officer of the governmental entity from which the appeal originated;

(C) any person who made a business confidentiality claim under Section 63-2-308 for a record that is the subject of the appeal; and

(D) all persons who participated in the proceedings before the governmental entity's chief administrative officer.

(b) (i) The executive secretary of the records committee may decline to schedule a hearing if the record series that is the subject of the appeal has been found by the committee in a previous hearing involving the same government entity to be appropriately classified as private, controlled, or protected.

(ii) (A) If the executive secretary of the records committee declines to schedule a hearing, the executive secretary of the records committee shall send a notice to the petitioner indicating that the request for hearing has been denied and the reason for the denial.

- (B) The committee shall make rules to implement this section as provided by Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.
- (5) (a) A written statement of facts, reasons, and legal authority in support of the governmental entity's position must be submitted to the executive secretary of the records committee not later than five business days before the hearing.
- (b) The governmental entity shall send a copy of the written statement to the petitioner by first class mail, postage prepaid. The executive secretary shall forward a copy of the written statement to each member of the records committee.
- (6) No later than ten business days after the notice of appeal is sent by the executive secretary, a person whose legal interests may be substantially affected by the proceeding may file a request for intervention before the records committee. Any written statement of facts, reasons, and legal authority in support of the intervener's position shall be filed with the request for intervention. The person seeking intervention shall provide copies of the statement to all parties to the proceedings before the records committee.
- (7) The records committee shall hold a hearing within the period of time described in Subsection (4).
- (8) At the hearing, the records committee shall allow the parties to testify, present evidence, and comment on the issues. The records committee may allow other interested persons to comment on the issues.
- (9) (a) The records committee may review the disputed records. However, if the committee is weighing the various interests under Subsection (11), the committee must review the disputed records. The review shall be in camera.
- (b) Members of the records committee may not disclose any information or record reviewed by the committee in camera unless the disclosure is otherwise authorized by this chapter.
- (10) (a) Discovery is prohibited, but the records committee may issue subpoenas or other orders to compel production of necessary evidence.
- (b) When the subject of a records committee subpoena disobeys or fails to comply with the subpoena, the records committee may file a motion for an order to compel obedience to the subpoena with the district court.
- (c) The records committee's review shall be de novo.
- (11) (a) No later than three business days after the hearing, the records committee shall issue a signed order either granting the petition in whole or in part or upholding the determination of the governmental entity in whole or in part.
- (b) The records committee may, upon consideration and weighing of the various interests and public policies pertinent to the classification and disclosure or nondisclosure, order the disclosure of information properly classified as private, controlled, or protected if the public interest favoring access outweighs the interest favoring restriction of access.
- (c) In making a determination under Subsection (11)(b), the records committee shall consider and, where appropriate, limit the requester's use and further disclosure of the record in order to protect privacy interests in the case of private or controlled records, business confidentiality interests in the case of records protected under Subsections 63-2-304(1) and (2), and privacy interests or the public interest in the case of other protected records.

(12) The order of the records committee shall include:

(a) a statement of reasons for the decision, including citations to this chapter, court rule or order, another state statute, federal statute, or federal regulation that governs disclosure of the record, provided that the citations do not disclose private, controlled, or protected information;

(b) a description of the record or portions of the record to which access was ordered or denied, provided that the description does not disclose private, controlled, or protected information or information exempt from disclosure under Subsection 63-2-201(3)(b);

(c) a statement that any party to the proceeding before the records committee may appeal the records committee's decision to district court; and

(d) a brief summary of the appeals process, the time limits for filing an appeal, and a notice that in order to protect its rights on appeal, the party may wish to seek advice from an attorney.

(13) If the records committee fails to issue a decision within 35 days of the filing of the notice of appeal, that failure shall be considered the equivalent of an order denying the appeal. The petitioner shall notify the records committee in writing if he considers the appeal denied.

(14) (a) Each government entity shall comply with the order of the records committee and, if records are ordered to be produced, file:

(i) a notice of compliance with the records committee upon production of the records; or

(ii) a notice of intent to appeal.

(b) (i) If the government entity fails to file a notice of compliance or a notice of intent to appeal, the records committee may do either or both of the following:

(A) impose a civil penalty of up to $500 for each day of continuing noncompliance; or

(B) send written notice of the entity's noncompliance to the governor for executive branch entities, to the Legislative Management Committee for legislative branch entities, and to the Judicial Council for judicial branch agencies entities.

(ii) In imposing a civil penalty, the records committee shall consider the gravity and circumstances of the violation, including whether the failure to comply was due to neglect or was willful or intentional.

History: C. 1953, 63-2-403, enacted by L. 1991, ch. 259, § 28; 1992, ch. 280, § 35; 1995, ch. 133, § 3; 1999, ch. 245, § 1.

Amendment Notes. — The 1999 amendment, effective May 3, 1999, in Subsection

(4)(a) added "Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b)" at the beginning and redesignated subsections and added Subsections (4)(b), (10)(b), and (14).
