

Collections to Aid in Your Search at The Lehi Historical Society and Archives

- Biography Files—documents and photos of Lehi citizens filed by name.
- Historical Files—documents and photos of local places, commerce, doctor’s offices, fire department, transportation and so forth filed by name.
- Lehi High School Yearbooks—beginning in 1913 as well as a vast collection of Sego Lily Elementary photos and documents.
- Lehi Newspapers—dating back to 1914.
- Local church records and histories—miscellaneous ward, Sunday School and quorum records. Have the personal journals of Lehi’s stake patriarch from 1901-1954.
- DUP Biographies—biographies of early Lehi residents written by DUP members.
- Richard Van Wagoner Photo Collection—historic photo collection.
- Family Histories—collection of family histories significant to Lehi.
- The Wayne Clark Collection—who and where everyone lived within the Old Fort Wall.
- Home files—information and photos collected on local homes filed by address.
- History of Lehi Round-Up scrapbooks, programs and memorabilia; cookbook collection; scrapbooks of newspaper articles featuring local stories, obituaries and women’s clubs; scrapbooks documenting businesses and areas by local scouts; miscellaneous state history books; a small collection of music books used in Lehi chapels; account books from early businesses and stores; all kinds of post office records; and so forth.
- Local History Books—Lehi: Portraits of a Utah Town, Pioneering Lehi City and Lehi Centennial History. These are for sale as well.
- Veteran Files—stories, photos and documentation on local veterans.
- Coming soon: The Lehi Free Press will be available on our website and on Utah Digital Newspapers. Thank you USHRAB for the matching grant that made this possible!
- We work to preserve anything from Lehi that we can get our hands on.

The Lehi Historical Society and Archives is located at 34 E. 100 North in Lehi. We can also be found on our popular Facebook page, at 801-768-1570 or on our website at lehihistory.com

