GRAMA Notice of Appeal to Chief Administrative Officer

Note: Utah Code § 63G-2-401 (GRAMA) provides that any person aggrieved by a governmental entity's access determination may appeal that determination within 30 days to the chief administrative officer by filing a notice of appeal.

Requester's information

Name: Thomas Dudley Beck Date: 3/4/2015

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Daytime telephone number: _____

Make request to

Name of chief administrative officer: NOVA DUBOVIK

Address: 346 S. Rio Grande

City/State/Zip: SLC, UT 84101-1106

Explanation of Relief Sought

Note: Relief can relate to denial of access to records (Utah Code § (63G-2-401) as well as unreasonable denials of fee waivers (Utah Code § (63G-2-203(6)) or extraordinary circumstances (Utah Code § (63G-2-401)).

A chief administrative officer can apply the weighing provision. This means that he or she can order the disclosure of information that was properly restricted if he or she determines that in a specific instance the interests favoring access are greater than or equal to the interests favoring restriction, Utah Code § (63G-2-401(6)). For this reason a requester's convincing argument may be helpful.

This is my FINAL Appeal For Records AS stated in three previous Requests (Attached) and denied three times (denials also Attached).
While awaiting a Reply From Mr. Peterson from my last request, I received from Skip Meser, a trustee of the BSA (Bluffs Service Area), additional documents which I have labelled I-IV. These documents were given to Jones and DeMille Engineering by the BWWSO (Bluffs Water Works Special Service District) for the purpose of completing the design for an Ansonic treatment plant for the city of Bluffs in 2011. These documents clearly show that the BWWSO has the DATA that I have been Requesting.

Inclusions for notice of appeal

This petition to appeal to the chief administrative officer can include the following attachments:

- Statement of facts, reasons, and legal authority in support of this appeal 19 pp. + documents
- Original GRAMA request 20 pp. labeled I-IX
- Notice of denial from the governmental agency's records officer Dec 2, 2014

Request assistance

A petitioner may request assistance from the government records ombudsman. The ombudsman's responsibility is to serve as a resource for a person who is filing an appeal relating to a records request. The ombudsman may also attempt to mediate disputes between requesters and responders (Utah Code § 63A-12-111(2)).
