Dear Ms. Dubovik:

Please confirm receipt.

On behalf of the Salt Lake Tribune, I please request the Utah State Records Committee consider my appeal of a records denial. I ask that the committee please schedule a hearing to consider my appeal.

I am appealing a denial of records issued by the Utah Attorney General's Office. My original request to the AG, and the documents I ask the committee to order disclosed, sought the following:

— All incoming and outgoing correspondence concerning Cameron Noel originating in 2014 or 2015 including, but not limited to, letters, emails, text messages and instant messaging programs

— The letter deputizing Troy Rawlings to consider criminal charges against Cameron Noel and any related instructions to Mr. Rawlings

I submitted my request January 23, 2015. A copy of my request is attached.

Mr. Ferguson denied my request on February 6. A copy of that denial is attached.

I sought further clarification from Mr. Ferguson. Follow an email exchange. Mr. Ferguson issued an amended letter of denial on February 17. That denial is attached.

On February 23, I followed the instructions Mr. Ferguson provided and appealed to Attorney General Sean Reyes. That appeal is attached.

On March 17, Parker Douglas responded on behalf of Mr. Reyes. Mr. Douglas affirmed the earlier denial in whole.

I prefer to please withhold arguments in favor of my appeal until a hearing is scheduled, though I do reserve the right to make such arguments.

Please contact me if you have questions or concerns. Thank you for your time in this matter.

Sincerely,

Nate Carlisle
