Explanation of Relief Sought

Note: Relief can relate to conflicts over denial of access to records (Utah Code § 63G-2-402) as well as disputes over fees (Utah Code § 63G-2-203(6)) or extraordinary circumstances (Utah Code § 63G-2-402).

The State Records Committee can also use the weighing provision to order the release of records that are properly restricted if it determines that the interests favoring access are greater than or equal to the interests favoring restriction (Utah Code § 63G-2-203(11))

Both my wife ,Galyn R. Crandall, and I , Richard K. Crandall, are Vulnerable Elders and by GRAMA request (copy submitted herewith) we requested all records and documents, both in written form or maintained in electronic form, such as emails, digital recordings, medical records notes of witness interviews or phone calls, digital recording and "Leaps" software tracking entries that relate to "victims" Richard K. Crandall's and Galyn R. Crandall's claim that "perpetrators" Matthew R. Larson and Debra J. Robinson have violated both Utah Code 62A -3- 3 et seq and the related applicable provisions of the Utah Criminal Code.

Both Galyn and I also believe that the requested records demonstrate that Utah Division of Adult Protective Service may have violated their duty to fully and timely investigate and prosecute claims of Elder Abuses under Title62A—3-3- et seq of the Utah Human Services Code, Title 77-38-1- et seq of the Utah Code of Criminal Procedure, and Article I, § 28 Of the Utah State Constitution known as the Declaration of the Rights of Crime Victims and Title 42 of the U.S Code § 1983- "Civil Action for the deprivation of rights" and the public disclosure of the requested record may benefit the public

However, the records made available for pick up at 195 North 1950 West Salt Lake City office of by GRAMA officer Michelle Gregory (also submitted herewith) only included a select few copies of the original emails, none of witness lists or confidential medical records that I have previously provide the APS intake officer or the the APS investigator Effie Kehle and Deputy Attorney General Steven Makita that document and my wifes Galyn;s claims elder abuse against Matthew R. Larson and Debra J. Robinson Also the APS reponse and denial did not in anyway identify or categorize additional records in the possession of the APS or state why these records are confidential or protected records and that copies were not being produced in violation of the UCA 63G- 2 -1 -9

My wife Galyn and I request that, after a hearing , the the Utah Division of Adult Protective Services be ordered to full comply with all applicable provision Utah Government Access Managment Act (UCA 63G- 2 -1 -9) and for such other relief that committee finds appropriate

Inclusions for notice of appeal
