Gina Proctor:

I have lost a lot this last year. My father and all my sibling's. I buried all of them with in the same week. I spent the entire week with my brother. [REDACTED] before he passed. I am fully aware of his medical history. There is no mystery there. The time we had, we spent talking. Your Dept. recently close the investigation of the death of my brother, I filed to receive a copy of the investing Gama request was denied under a privacy act. I am fully aware that you can block out what you don't want me to see. At this time, I would like this decision reevaluated . I believe that as his sister, I'm entitled to know the circumstances of his death and the investigation that followed . If his death was to be a suicide, I would like to know how that determination was made, as my brother was someone I loved and it was hard for us to comprehend this action, a mitigating circumstance for us was his wife who had a restraining order for violence who was present at the time of his death, if his death was a suicide this report could help me findclosure to this stressful event. your attention to this matter is sincerely appreciated.
